

INDEPENDENT EXPERT

Unfortunately, disputes in everyday business life are commonplace, whether they relate to a partnership split or marital separation, failure to serve an appropriate notice, or incorrect business property advice. Such disagreements within the business property sector are often particularly complex or unusual.

Pinders' team of experienced professionals have a proven track record of delivering high quality expert advice. We are regularly instructed by solicitors to provide Independent Expert Reports for a variety of purposes, to include:

loss of profits claims ● professional negligence confiscation proceedings ● matrimonial settlement partnership break-up ● fraud commercial agency ● severance claims company incorporation and taxation issues

Our specialist sectors include:

licensed and leisure ● retail ● healthcare care homes ● hotels ● public houses restaurants ● service industries ● transport sector wholesale and manufacturing ● IT ● food processing professional practices ● commercial agencies ● specialist businesses

With the move towards a single, court appointed Expert in each case, the need for true specialist expertise, as provided by Pinders, is essential. This expertise is underpinned by our database of some 200,000 businesses, together with continually updated records of sales and market transactions.
